Our Souls Unite

You hold my hair with love
A touch I feel with mine
I understand your gaze
Our love are the same in time
Your smile makes me happy
Your kiss makes my soul unlonely
So please don’t leave me in pain
My missis would be insane
I never knew her touch was cold
The feeling that was never bold
I have no clue what love is really

My above and beyond would be so lonely

Deep Within My Soul

Deep within my soul
You are not forgotten
You are a necessary palindrome
The sun is my source of strength
The morning passes without water
The fire really makes me burn
My love is all I have for you
My imagination lingers every so often
The sun’s rays befitting the place
Past present and future unite
It matters more if you do out of sight
We make love all the morn
The hearts that touch a million scorn

Time has no power over reborn
Places distant are hard to find
Tomorrow forever in sickless thine
Deep within my soul
You are my one true tomorrow
Days just pass me by unnoticed
Loneliness creeps and shadows lurk
For endless love hesitates rebirth
From days to months to yearning bolt

To Embark On A Journey Of Love

The waters in oceans pass me by
The narrow road was built in disguise
Ocean deep is my love on line
Seeking and finding the part that’s mine
I roam endlessly the worlds of war
I’ve been into the daily stars
Then not but now I’m tired
So so tired enough of the fire
But I still wanna fight
I ask help from the skies above
The answer is quick “Yes I will help thee”

Peace is another optional mark
To war is peace and peace is work
I am starting to be on the edge the barrier’s junction Don’t just know the direction it took
I fall time and again without surrendering
My mettle is strong somehow somewhere sometime
My calmness and strength of mind prevailed
Even if I fall into the deepest abyss
I have still the courage to Embark on a journey of love
That’s all

I Love You Very Much

I need you very much in solitariness
Our souls and spirits connect and unite
I love to be in your eyes ever mingling
To do many things is really my inkling
I won’t disclose my secrets to you
Because you are my stranger in the night
I don’t even know who you are
But that cannot be further from the truth
Because true love breaks the barriers between us

And it is reciprocated the hidden finally revealed
Nights have passed and I still feel I need you
And the same feeling you have for me too
I cried the tears of a thousand floods
Which pulled me closer to you
Our paths are already meeting a junction
And near is the time we will finally meet
And you are truly a big blessing to me
Patience is required in this test
To wait for you for all eternity I’m willing to do
Because God works out the depths of our love
The Eternal God who works everyone to be eternal
Our tears will be no more
But floods of happiness and bliss
It is really a good thing to be in the right path

Nature’s Wonders Love And Thunder

I was meant to love you
It was very easy and painless
My life is meaningful with you and meaningless without you
We share the same triple bonds in chemistry
I call you honey and you call me sugar
We are predestined to be like the Gods angels and saints
In nature’s wonders love and thunder we were are and will always meant to be

You And I For Love

True strength has finally found me
My heart is bursting and falling fast
For I am your protector we protect each other
We always monitor the tides of storm
The bliss that comes with it is extraordinary
Many legions have been environmentalized
As I philosophize alone
There is no more love available

For we love each other not for the love we give
I give you the whole universe
We are inseparable
And nothing will ever be between
Everything is always fine
I need the songs that meet the rhyme
Your touch is sufficient for me
I keep falling in hundreds of jujubees
We will never cease to exist in this
This love we will be forevermore

A Woman In Love

Tears have found her in darkness
Tears rolling down her cheek
Not knowing how it happened
Fully leaning on the fears
No more kisses for her ever
No more smiles would be bliss
To recharge is the only solution
One moment in time is enough
She yearns and craves for company
A friend and more than a friend
The bond in her heart is broken which cannot be repaired

Who can ever repair her broken heart
No tears can Only someone who can understand her like the Saviour Jesus Christ
Then can her life be renewed
All her losses regenerated
Her forever love should be Jesus
For she can definitely trust Him
The reviver of broken souls
The risen King
Jesus Christ is her only True Love
So she must really run fast to the Lord
To prevent her tears turning into blood
Then her next and final love will be Eternal
For the Lord Jesus Christ is the whole universe for those who love and find Him

The Beginning of Love

The beginning was at hand
When I looked at you looking at me
Like the universe got his eyes on me
Yes quite right the feeling it was
I just can’t stop having you in me
I just can’t stop having you with me
I always find smiling an insanity
The feeling was very real but no
My heart can’t win them all
Your everything is in me and with me
I am flying though without wings
My every bone and sinews speak
Your eyes connect with mine

Like a kaleidoscope rhyme
It feels I feel is right
Buttery melting out of sight
The wonder of it all
Makes me feel out of soar
My cheeks cry and my tongue laugh
You are a treasure to me like Heaven
There is always a bright future for us
We don’t have to travel to present and the past
The Lord has truly given you to me
For you truly complete me
You are my necessary and necessity
No more questions to be born

Dreaming Of You

Love conquered my dreams last night
When I dreamed a beautiful thing
The love of my life come breaking in
The love of flowers embed
The dream is neverending
The lover kissed in calm’s embrace
The right hand was all over me
The hug and kiss cannot subside
The kiss was unique and unthorough
Like there’s chocolate in no tomorrow
The hug was for an eternity
The infinity that doesn’t perish

Then the dream was gone
But remembrance did I have
And in memoriam did the events take place
I’m sure it’s gone

Flowers For My Love

Flowers for you from Solomon
Flowers from me from mountain’s dawn
My love for you will jump as zone
The fruits of my love will be sweet and soft
My love for you it could be more
Your color attracts my eyes
Your body is sweet embrace
You and I alone in the room
We make the love that empresses soon
You comfort my pain with bodily sight

Whenever I am in need of your plight
You hold my head with your hands
And kiss me with the lips beforehand
I always will be needing this kind of love
Like flowers in the field that’s candy to the eyes
